Three $750 Scholarships Awarded to Amador High School Graduates

At the Scholarship Awards night on May 15, the Sutter Creek Lions Club (represented by Francine Pogue) awarded three graduating seniors scholarships. Funds for these scholarships were raised at our annual “Stan Kelley Memorial Crab Feed”.

Travis Harlan, an Eagle Scout with Sutter Creek Boy Scouts Troop 63, will use his scholarship to help further his education in Engineering at University of Nevada, Reno. While in high school Travis played lead roles in Musical Theater and is a California Scholarship Federation member.

Shania Bennett’s lifelong goal is to become a Doctor. Shania has been involved with many organizations and community service. Her summers were spent as a lifeguard and a referee. Shania’s number one school to attend is the University of Washington in Seattle.

Morgan Graziadei plans to major in Biology then attend Veterinary School. Morgan spent 17 days in Uganda with Fund a Field. She received the President’s Volunteer Service Award-Gold Level and was the one girl from Amador High School chosen to participate in California Girls State 2013. Morgan was Miss Amador 2013. Her school of choice is Stanford University.

The Sutter Creek Lion Club is proud to award these scholarships to graduating seniors.

Later this fall we will be offering continuing scholarships for upper division college juniors and seniors.
