Friday, July 30, 1929 Yellowstone Park Fountain Hotel

The following is an excerpt from the 1929 diary of a woman traveling across the United States from Pennsylvania to southern California. She is accompanied by her children's nanny, who is also the driver, and two children about 5 and 10 years old.

I was much diverted by watching the antics of a lot of members of the Lions Club from Miami. Yellow and white hatbands proclaimed the fact that they were members of this organization. In case anyone missed the headbands, they gathered in a group on the porch and sang a song about "Miami, Florida: and the joys to be had in living there". Words, at least, composed by some realtor—music, I think stolen from something hauntingly familiar. They were accompanied by several "Lionesses" who were uniformed in royal purple satine capes with yellow collars incrypted with the word "Lions", jockey caps of purple and gold adorned their heads.

Submitter's note: Aren't you glad Lions have progressed to vests and ball caps, and ladies, I can only say the capes and jockey caps are sadly missed!

Past District Governor Pat Casey-Gillum

The guest speaker at the October 23 Lions meeting was Past District Governor Pat Casey-Gillum. Pat and her husband Frank drove from Modesto to attend our meeting. She is currently the Cabinet Treasurer for District 4-A1. Her topic for the evening was membership. Listed below are some points she expressed.

- Their signature event provides for kids with disabilities.
- You need to have a definite goal for membership (e.g., net plus one).
- How do you treat members? Send handwritten "Thank you".
- People have less time now – both people working, long commutes.
- There are several organizations going after the same people.
- Ask potential members to a social or fund raiser.
- Let prospective members see the "choice to be a Lion".
- You need to have fun.
- Do a club rating every three years to find out how the membership feels about the club.
- Be flexible with meetings and members.
- Recognize the needs in the community.
- Have a "project of the month" to get members involved. Let them pick a project.
- Don't become routine.
- Don't lose the passion.

MELVIN JONES

FOUNDER OF LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL

Melvin Jones was born on January 13, 1879 in Fort Thomas, Arizona, the son of a United States Army captain who commanded a troop of scouts. Later, his father was transferred and the family moved east. As a young man, Melvin made his home in Chicago, Illinois, become associated with an insurance firm and in 1913 formed his own agency.

He soon joined the Business Circle, a businessmen’s luncheon group, and was shortly elected secretary. This group was one of many at that time devoted solely to promoting the financial interests of their membership. Because of their limited appeal, they were destined to disappear. Melvin Jones, then a 38 year-old Chicago business leader, had other plans. “What if these men, who are successful because of their drive, intelligence, and ambition, were to put their talents to work improving their communities?” Thus, at his invitation, delegates from men’s clubs met in Chicago to lay the groundwork for such an organization and on June 7, 1917, Lions Clubs International was born.

Melvin Jones eventually abandoned his insurance agency to devote himself full time to Lions at International Headquarters in Chicago. It was under his dynamic leadership that Lions clubs earned the prestige necessary to attract civic-minded members. The association’s founder was also recognized as a leader by those outside the association. One of his greatest honors was in 1945 when he represented Lions Clubs International as a consultant in San Francisco, California, at the organization of the United Nations.

Melvin Jones, the man whose personal code – “You can’t get very far until you start doing something for somebody else” – became a guiding principle for public-spirited people the world over, died June 1, 1961 at 82 years of age.

In 1947 Melvin Jones came to Sutter Creek and presented the Sutter Creek Lions Club their bell at their Charter.
