

LION TALES

Over $8,000 Donated in 2013 By the Sutter Creek Lions Club

- $2,000 to the City of Sutter Creek for Benches on Main Street
- $1,500 High School Scholarship
- $2,000 Upper Division Scholarships (two at $1,000)
- $1,000 to the Lions International Disaster Fund in the name of Sutter Creek Lions member Bob Carlson for a Melvin Jones Fellow Award
- $800 to Sutter Creek Boy Scout Troop 63
- $300 to the Amador High School Performing Arts
- $250 to the Lions Eye Foundation
- $100 to the Amador West Junior Little League
- $100 to the Willow Springs 4-H Club
- $50 to the Amador County Fair

In addition, we have collected over 500 eyeglasses for recycling and donated several pounds of pull tabs for the Ronald McDonald House Charities. We volunteer regularly at the Interfaith Food Bank, help with the Sutter Creek Mardi Gras with proceeds going to restore the Old Sutter Creek Grammar School, help at Sober Grad, Camp Out for Cancer, Parade of Lights in Sutter Creek, and collect funds for Christmas to Remember.
